

OHIO POLYGRAPH & ASSOCIATES / CLARK-DYE & ASSOCIATES

POLYGRAPH EXAMINATION REPORT

Date = 12/21/2012

To = Ohio Justice & Policy Center / David Singleton

Examinee = LaShawna Keeney

Regarding Issue of = Tyra Patterson Case

Mr. Singleton,

The above named Examinee voluntarily agreed on this date to be examined on the Polygraph Instrument, a Detection of Deception technique by Ohio Polygraph & Associates and Clark-Dye & Associates.

The purpose of this Examination was to ascertain if the Examinee was attempting to withhold or conceal any information in the Tyra Patterson Case.

Examination was conducted at Dayton Correctional Institution located at 4104 Germantown Pike, Dayton, Ohio.

Relevant Questions Asked During Polygraph Examination

- 1. DID TYRA TRY TO STOP THE ROBBERY OF THE VICTIMS INSIDE THE CHEVETTE, BY TELLING YOU TO LEAVE THOSE GIRLS ALONE? (YES)
- 2. DID TYRA SNATCH A NECKLACE FROM ANYONE IN THE CHEVETTE? (NO)
- 3. DID TYRA PARTICIPATE IN ANYWAY, IN THE ROBBERY OF THE VICTIMS INSIDE THE CHEVETTE? (NO)
- 4. DID TYRA ASSAULT ANY OF THE VICTIMS INSIDE THE CHEVETTE? (NO)

After a careful interpretation of the Examinees Polygraph Tracings, which are the recorded Examinees responses, during this Polygraph Examination, the below opinion was obtained by these Examiners.

The Polygrams revealed No Questionable Responses by this Examinee during this Polygraph Examination, and it is the opinion of both Examiners that she is deemed as Truthful.

It is further both Examiners opinion, which is based upon the Polygrams received by this Examinee is that,

Tyra Patterson did tell LaShawna Keeney, to leave the girls in the Chevette alone, in an attempt to stop the robbery

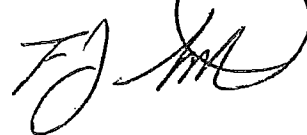

Tyra Patterson did not "snatch" a necklace from anyone in the Chevette.

Tyra Patterson did not participate in the robbery in anyway.

Tyra Patterson did not assault anyone inside the Chevette.

Respectfully Submitted

Frank Smith

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read 'FJ Smith', with a large circular flourish at the end.

Donald Clark

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read 'Donald Clark', with a large flourish at the end.